At least 13 deaths in Britain were blamed on the weather, a dozen when their houses collapsed. Two mountain climbers died in a blizzard while trying to scale "Watz" Mount Snowdon.

Heavy snow stranded cars in Scotland and put Edinburgh in a state of seige," according to a spokesman of the automobile association spokesman.

Just north of Plymouth, England, where gusts of nearly 100 miles per hour were reported, 10 feet of snow and winds at Naples kept a British ship onto the rocks. The ship, the Empress of Scotland, was en route from Germany to southern Switzerland with 1,000 passengers. Some 1,000 soldiers were stranded yesterday when they went out to lay new crewmen for the ship.

Waves drove over the rocks and boats were tossed on the rocks by high winds to force all men ashore.

Famed Atom Physicist Dies at 77

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Nov. 19 (UPI) — Niels Bohr, one of the century's leading nuclear physicists, died at 77.

He was stricken by a heart attack while he was in his Coeur d'Alene City home.

Bohr, an absent-minded professor admired by scholars for his wit and good humor, was ranked second only to the late Albert Einstein among physicists of the 20th century.

Our greatest living physicist, he said, was Werner Heisenberg, who worked with Bohr on the development of the atomic bomb in the United States. Both of them, he said, "have left a void which no one can fill."

Similar tributes came from Dr. Robert Oppenheimer, head of the U.S. atomic energy commission; Sir John Cockcroft, the leading British atomic scientist; Dr. Edward Teller, the Hungarian-born, and other Nobel Prize winners.

Bohr at the age of 28 pioneered the theory of the atom, on problems that had puzzled many scientists.

Nixon is his own party. In 1952, when it was discovered that a group of California businessmen had set up a political fund of $16,000 to help elect Senator Raymond, leaders thought he should resign as Gen. Eisenhower's running mate in the presidential campaign.

Nixon went on television to explain the fund and said:

"Not one cent of the $16,000 or any other money of that type ever reached the campaign fund. Every penny of it was used to pay for political expenses that I did not think should be charged to the taxpayers of the U.S."

The speech kept his place on the record.

After he lost the 1960 presidential election to John F. Kennedy, Nixon moved to Los Angeles and entered a law office, built a home, and ostensibly settled comfortably into private life.

Concerned that Nixon had even into the aftermath of the presidential election, Californians who had supported him argued that he had conducted himself with dignity, disregarded advice, made himself inelectable, and alleged

Questions Rise From Sidelines Even As Controversy Swirls About Nixon

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (UPI)—Is Nixon, the controversial man, really finished now in politics as a result of his defeat? It is hard to believe he is to governor of Calif.

Some observers, including former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, say they doubt it.

"He's too able a man to be eliminated," one said in New York.

"It's not possible to say his career is ended. Maybe he thinks that somebody is going to interfere with him."

Washington columnist David Lawrence wrote, "Maybe Nixon has nine political years left."

One New York Herald Tribune quoted an unidentified source of Nixon as saying a Republican president would be elected in 1964.

In any case, the immediate aftermath of Nixon's defeat has been to focus attention on the vice presidency.

First there was Nixon's appointment as a member of the Senate Select Committee on Small Business.

Then there was Nixon's appointment to the Senate Select Committee on Small Business.

In the short run, it may result in your being defeated in the long run it is the only way to build a sound party position."

Nixon became a controversial figure, to some degree, after the publication of a book by James J. Kilpatrick, "The Politics of Nixon," in 1960. Nixon was convicted of perjury in denying he passed U.S. secrets to the Soviet Union. The author of the book called it "one of the most scurrilous political aspersions" he had ever heard.

But Rep. Gerald Ford, R.-Mich., said on the same program: "In my opinion, the American people are more interested in Nixon than in his dedication to finding out all the possible facts that the committee could find out about the Alger Hiss case and that directly around him."

Young Defensive Back Helps Green Bay Packers Edge Colts by 17 to 13

By The Associated Press

It's not Jim Taylor, Bart Starr or Paul Hornung who wears the hero tag today in Green Bay. But a young defensive back named Herb Adderly has played Mr. Clutch for the second time this year to keep the Packers' championship hopes alive.

Maple Leafs Stymied by Low Rangers

By The Associated Press

Toronto coach Punch Imlach

has an unusual and embarrassing problem: his Maple

Leafs are the best team in the New York Rangers.

The Rangers, who haven't caused major discomfort among the rest of the National League since the early 1950s, are in the playoffs only once in the last four seasons and currently are 11th place.

The have played the Stanley

Cup champion Maple Leafs five times this season and have alked off with victories three times. By contrast, Toronto has been eliminated from the playoffs twice in the last two years.

The Rangers turned the trick again last night, snapping a five-game Toronto winning streak 3-1 and 17-16 in overtime.

By the Leaf's drive to overtake the leaders, Boston beat Boston

3-1 and Chicago and Montreal played to a 1-1 tie in the other period.

Second period goals by Ken Schinkel and Jim Iatelle and the steady goal-tending of Gump

Worrell gave the keys to the Ranger victory.

Worrell turned back 31 shots

15 of them in the scoreless first period before the Rangers got organized. Then dominated the game, holding the lead the rest of the way to give the Leafs 20-17 over the last two periods.

you'd think it was when Michael Father's day, too, when Micheal's mom and many more after that.

When you're in the stands,

Leafs kicked a 24-yard field goal with 13 seconds remaining in the game, giving the Colts a 17-16 victory over the Washington Redskins, a would-be Cinderella team. It was the second time that Michael's fell-footed field goal has won for the Steelers.

Babe Parilli Is

Out on Fracture

HUNTINGTON, Nov. 19 (UPI)

Babe Parilli, second leading passer in the American Football League, received a broken collarbone

when tackled by the second quater today while leading the Boston Patriots against the Houston Oilers.

The bone was broken at Par-illi's shoulder by Bill Hinchman, Houston defensive tackle.

Parilli, who had led the Patriots into the league's Eastern division with a 10-2 record and Yewie, former Michigan State star who had thrown only eight pases this season while serving as Parilli's understudy.

New Program Adopted by Valley High

HAZELTON. Nov. 19.—A four-year-old program required by the Board of Education beginning with the 1964 year has been adopted by the Board of Education for Valley High School. The recommendations from the Board of Education were accepted by the Board of Education at a meeting held this week at a meeting in Mr. Leibach's office.

In order to meet the needs of students, Valley High School will offer a three preparatory years, five arts course, commercial, five arts course, commercial, and vocational. This will be done with the first two years of all qualifying students for college entrance.

Recommendations from the Board of Education which were approved include introduction of modern math throughout grades 1 to 12 including algebra, geometry, trigonometry, calculus, biology, chemistry, physics, and physiology for seniors.

Social science committee recommendations were approved after four years of social science will be offered. New additions will be world history and world geography taught weekly in all sophomore classes will be spent in study of current events.

Recommendations from the Board of Education which were approved include uniform approach to book reports, with emphasis on grammar, punctuation, and spelling; an emphasis in reading and writing in the 12th grade. All teachers in these schools will devote one day per week to individual work and evaluation of student progress. English remedial program will be introduced.

The language department recommends the purchase of a grecian laboratory for grecian and Spanish. The entire group also recommended that where possible, in their classes credit should be given for remedial tests used.

Members of the committee were Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Mrs. Bill Williams, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Clarkie Whitehead, Mrs. Debler Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kurtz, Louise Beck, Mrs. Mary Hill, Mrs. Johnson, Harry Hulse, Arthur Bodell and Laurence Prentiss.

Designation of Ralph McCallum as custodian was accepted.

He will continue as bus driver for the district. P. J. Elsenhaer and Norman Polley, members of the Board of Education, were selected by Dawson from around the park. Dawson said each boy was hand-picked and each

New Facilities Are Added At Shoshone Falls Park

The Twin Falls parks and recreation department recently completed installation of three charcoal burners at Shoshone Falls park.

William Dawson, park attendant, said the burners are made of steel and concrete. The three burners are about three feet square by three feet high. The charcoal grill, located on the side of the burner, is two blocks deep, eight inches wide and about one foot long. The grill is fastened to the concrete by two steel hooks.

Designation of Ralph McCallum as custodian was accepted. He will continue as bus driver for the district. P. J. Elsenhaer and Norman Polley, members of the Board of Education, were selected by Dawson from around the park. Dawson said each boy was hand-picked and each had to be about the same size and shape.

There are now four such burners and eight other outdoor fireplaces at the park, says Howard Johnson, acting parks and recreation supervisor.

The units of the charcoal grills will be cleaned out every day during the summer months.

Johnson said last summer there was an average of 23 trailers and 100 people overnighting at Shoshone Falls.

The three burners are located along the main road that leads to the concession stand.

Another facility added to the park is a new water fountain.

The fountain is located near the concession stand.

The water fountain also sits next to the rock and concrete built out of rock and concrete by Dawson.

The water fountain is located near the concession stand.

The parks and recreation department also added an acre of ground between the large pond next to the grade and the road with a new walkway.

The department hopes to have another modern restroom building built at Shoshone Falls before next summer, Johnson noted.

Dirt Hauled to Church Grounds

HARLEM. Nov. 19.—Several hundred yards of earth have been hauled to the church and placed on the irregular tract of ground between U. S. highway 93 and the Buddhist temple and the Buddhist and the LDS church.

The ground which belongs to the church has been leveled, a bulldozer has been installed, and dirt will be transported and planted in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Shultz, who are the owners of the church, will care for this 35-acre tract in addition to the large grounds surrounding the church, church authorities wish to thank those who helped with their time and effort for this work.

4-H Leadership Club Is Formed

HARLEM. Nov. 19.—A pre-meeting was held to form a new 4-H Leadership Club in Elmore county was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson in Garret last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Mrs. Eakin, Mrs. Lester Brown, and Mrs. Byington, also attended.
